

Subject: New Webcasts on ACRE

farmdoc Subscriber:

Illinois Farm Bureau, Illinois Farm Service Agency, and the University of Illinois have cooperated in putting together three webcasts providing information about ACRE. A presentation entitled "Summary and Benefits of ACRE" provides a look at the benefits of ACRE. Doug Yoder of Illinois Farm Bureau provides a comprehensive look at ACRE in "2008 Farm Bill: ACRE Overview". Stan Wilson provides an explanation of the ACRE enrollment process in a presentation entitled "ACRE Election and Enrollment".

In the webcast format, a series of slides is presented with an accompanying audio description of the contents. Any slide can be repeated by clicking a selection on the navigation list at the left of the player window.

Please view these webcasts in the Presentations section of farmdoc at:
